The Links in Our Chain of School Day Memories

The Wak-Igh-An

Hi, Folks!

Since you all know me, I'll only explain my presence here at this time. The '57 WAK-IGH-AN staff has given me the great pleasure of guiding you thru the links in their chain of memories. As you go thru this annual, I'll be right there on the pages with you, and participating in all your activities with you.

We all love dear old Wakelon with all our heart, so let's all join in and sing:

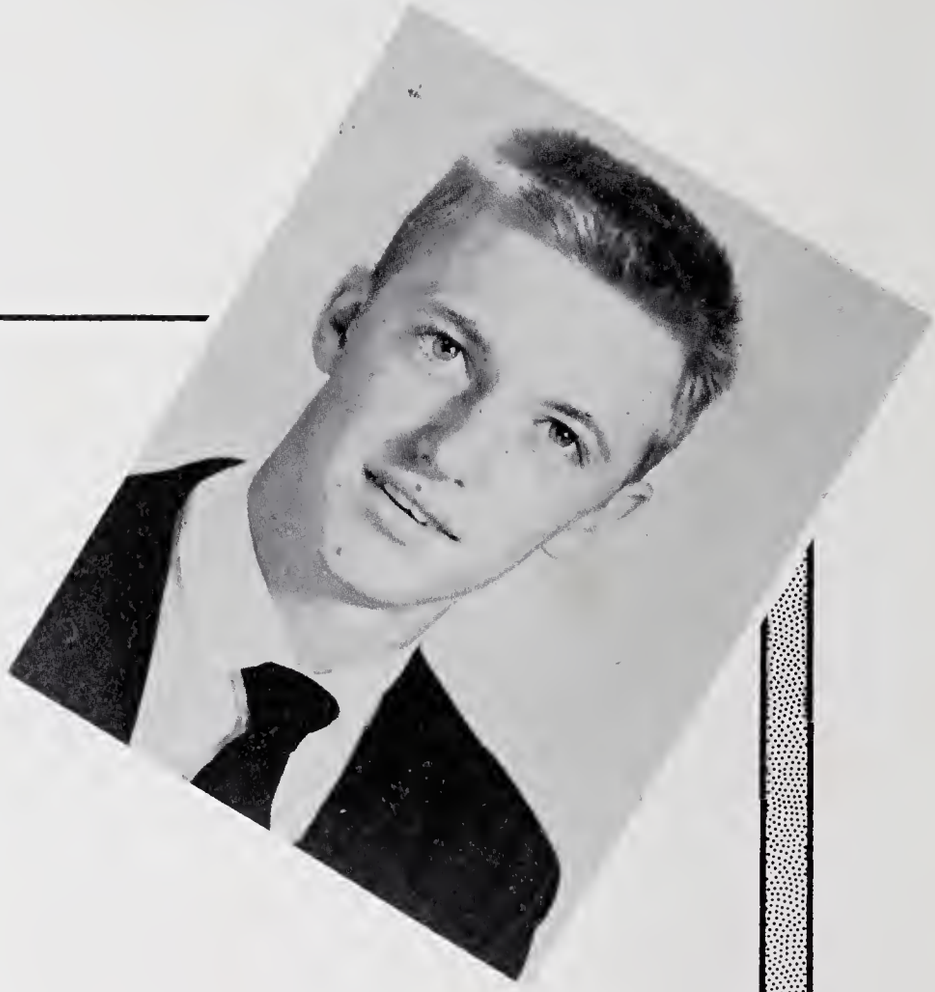
It's dear old Wakelon,
It's dear old Wakelon,
We have the best school in the land.
Come on, Wakelonians,
Join in, Wakelonians,
We'll show the whole world where we stand.
Now is the time, boys,
To make a big noise
No matter what the people say.
For there is none to fear
The gang's all here,
So it's hail to dear old Wakelon, Hail!
Rah! Rah!

Dedicated to Our Golden Links

Our Parents and Our Faculty

The dedication of this annual to our parents and our faculty is only a small token of the love and appreciation that fills our hearts as we think of them. For so long they have given us the unfailing assistance, the understanding, and the love that we needed to push us ever forward. With a touch of nostalgia we can remember their determined efforts to make us happy and satisfied. We are ever grateful to them for understanding our problems, inspiring us with confidence, encouraging us when we were disheartened, and enhancing our chance for success in the future.

Words can never tell just what you mean to each of us, but we hope that through the dedication of our '57 WAK-IGH-AN we shall be able to express a little of our love, honor, and respect to you, our parents and our faculty.



The seniors of '57 will never have their chain of memories complete, for one of us has not been here to share our last year at Wakelon. We lost one of our friendliest and most loyal members, Eddie Bullock, in an an accident last summer. This year as we occupy our places as seniors, and finally, as we come to graduation, we are acutely conscious of the empty seat and deeply saddened that Eddie is not here with us. We publish this '57 WAK-IGH-AN in memory of Eddie and hope that somehow he may know how much we miss him.

Principal's Message

The purpose of the WAK-IGH-AN is to provide moments of relaxation in later years to former students of the Wakelon School. The thrill of turning the pages and gazing upon friends that are almost forgotten will bring back memories of your school days on the campus. As you turn the pages, each picture will reveal a story not only of your classmates, but of the many phases of the school program of which you were a part.

Much time and hard work was put into this publication by the annual staff. The student body faculty, and myself congratulate the staff on the excellent work done in making this one of the finest publications.

Our Treasure Links

SONG

Sometimes we wish that we need ne'er be parted,

And then our happiness would be complete,

We know that you our dear Old Alma Mater

Will always be a lamp unto our feet.

We hope that we may 'ere be true to your ideals,

To you we pledge our love forever more

We know to us you'll always true and faithful be

And up to you our hearts will always soar.

MOTTO

We build the ladder by which we climb.

COLORS	FLOWER
Blue and White	American Beauty Rose

POEM

The time for our departure is very near at hand,

Our happy and thankful voices ring out through all the land.

Forever we leave its teachings, all of this is true,

But our hearts belong to Wakelon, whatever we may do.

We'll all remember our teachers, parents, students, and friends,

Who held the torch that led us through days without an end.

But most of all we'll remember our God in the heavens above

Sending to us His Blessing, Encouragement, and Love.

And now as we go our separate ways we bid our last farewell,

But we know the class of '57 will never never fail.

Peggy Greene
Class Poet

As Our Chain Grew

We, the Seniors of 1957, have almost reached the last link in our chain of school day memories. It was in September of 1945 that we made the first link in our chain that was to continue for twelve years. This was the eventful day that we went to school for the first of many times to come. Little did we know of the great amount of work that would have to be behind the years that forged our chain. To help us begin this task, Mrs. Lois Wall and Mrs. Eva Page taught us to read and print. Then, after we had learned our A-B-C's and were able to count to a hundred, we were ready for the second grade. That year we were very glad to have Mrs. Mary Lowry, the principal's wife, and Miss Lucille Husketh as our teachers. This was the year we began to write and work with figures. Thus another link was forged in our chain.

Miss Lucille Yelverton and Miss Mozelle Rogers were our teachers in the third grade. Miss Yelverton's class always looked forward to the bubble gum parties on Friday. Betty Jean and Jean Helen will long remember the very funny picture they created that year. They agree that they haven't seen a tree just like that one since! So, our third link was added - pictures, bubble gum, and all.

Our fourth year we were very proud to be on the second floor in the elementary building. To us, that was indeed a mark of distinction. WE thought it a grand thing! It seems our teachers, Mrs. Dorothy Thomas and Miss Alma Lewis, had quite a few headaches! Trying to keep us in line up and down the stairways, and especially at lunch periods, proved a frustrating task! (Our cafeteria was on the ground floor at the time.) Remember the time Miss Lewis asked "Bro" what he had had for breakfast. His prompt answer of "Eggs!" only brought another question: "Was it singular or plural?" And "Bro" replied, "Neither. scrambled!"

For our fifth year, we were promoted across the hall. That year we had Mrs. Helen Gregory and Miss Margaret Chappell as our teachers. We took another big step that year when we were introduced to a total stranger - North Carolina history. I am sure that all will agree that it was entirely different from any subject we had ever had, but we all profited as we learned how to appreciate our "Old North State." With a better appreciation of our Tar Heel State, we forged the fifth link of our growing chain.

Our sixth year Miss Jo Anne Stuart and Mrs. Coressa Chamblee were our teachers. Mrs. Chamblee taught many of us the fundamentals of fine art. Many enjoyable hours were spent working on our ancient history projects that year. And I am sure that Marie and E. B. will never forget Miss Stuart.

Adding another link, we reached the seventh grade. Now we really thought we were dignified since we were the seniors of the elementary building. Mrs. Margaret Hawthorne and Mrs. F. E. Bunn were our teachers. Being the basketball coach, Mrs. Hawthorne encouraged many of us to play basketball. We enjoyed this very much. Mrs. Bunn was the librarian and those of us in her room really worked to keep the library in shipshape order. It was in the seventh grade, too, that Robert Jenkins nearly lost his position as president of the class because of chewing gum.

Then, after eight long years of waiting, we finally moved to the high school building. Having such a large class, we were divided into three sections that year. Mrs. Alease Compton, Miss Gladys Baker, and Mr. Howard Thomas were our teachers. Miss Baker's room will long remember chasing butterflies and gazing at the stars. Mrs. Compton's room experienced quite a thrill when they composed an annual of their very own - under Mrs. Compton's supervision, of course. One of the most memorable things for Mr. Thomas's room is the surprise birthday party we gave him.

Now that our primary and elementary links were complete, we came to another link almost as memorable as the first link - our first day in high school. We were so thrilled over the new experience of finally being a part of the high school that it resulted in most of us getting lost and never getting to our classes the first few days. But, Mr. Herbert Holt and Mrs. James Foxx, our teachers, were always there to help us out of those jams in which we were so constantly becoming involved. That year, Mr. Holt, having just become a proud father himself, was very disappointed when his Algebra I class couldn't seem to find a way of getting Li'l Abner's little son, Honest Abe, out of the drain pipe. Mr. Foxx will never be forgotten either - for quite a few reasons!! Even though we were the lowest of the underclassmen, we were very proud to have had a hand in the surprise farewell party for Mr. Whittenton, our principal, and his wife that spring.

As the Sophomore class of '55, we were well versed in the ways of high school life, and we snobbishly looked down our noses at the poor little confused Freshmen who were rushing around. However, we were quite dismayed to be the class to which Sophomore Physical Education was introduced as a required subject. But, somehow, Miss Irma Walker and Mrs. Lillie Antonakos managed to pull us through the year without any major mishaps. The main highlight of our year was the fact that we were waitresses and waiters at the 1955 Junior-Senior Banquet.

It would really be hard to describe all the events of our Junior year. We were so proud to be Juniors, and we really took advantage of any privilege that came our way. Everyone worked very hard to make our magazine sale a big success that year. Remember how thrilled we were when we received our class rings on November 21, 1955! As March of that year rolled around, it found us working very hard on our Junior Play, which was titled "If Mother Only Knew." Peggy and Robert made quite an attractive married couple, don't you think? And we mustn't forget how much those dear children, Zelma, Diane, And "Bro", loved their parents; they would sacrifice anything. And, don't you think Joseph looked very feminine when he dressed up in his "rag mop?" Then came the Junior-Senior Banquet! Everything about it - the plans, decorating for it, and finally the banquet itself - brings back unforgettable moments in our lives. We thought the cafeteria was quite lovely - even if the sky did fall! And, last but certainly not least, is our part in the Class Night exercises. It was quite an ordeal to fix all those arches with flowers. Our work proved worthwhile, however, in order to wish the Class of '56 a proper farewell. And guiding us through all activities were our Junior sponsors, Miss Blanche Gay and Miss Frances Walser. So, our eleventh link was forged to the chain.

Then in the fall of '56 began that long awaited moment when we would begin forging our twelfth, and last, link to the chain of our school memories. At last we were Seniors and the underclassmen would have to stand up for us to walk down the aisle. We began the year under the supervision of a new principal, Mr. John J. Hicks. To steer us through all our Senior activities were Mrs. Doris Privette and Miss Elizabeth Boles. First on our program was our Senior Bar-B-Q Supper, which we all enjoyed. In November and December, we sold candy. Then we began work on our play, "Cupid In Pigtails." We weren't shocked at how well Carolyn played the part of Susie, the main character, but we were shocked at how natural it seemed for her to get into all those scrapes. Peggy G. really must have a maternal instinct as she was mother in this play, also. We won't forge the many laughs we received from this play for quite a while. Next, we began preparations for our Senior trip. How we had looked forward to this and how we enjoyed Washington! After this trip, all our attention was focused on our graduation excercises. It will be quite a long time before we forget our classmates and what they have each meant to us. Entwined in the twelve links of our chain are the things which are dearest to us.

The Last Link

We, the members of the Senior Class of '57, being of reasonably sound mind and body, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, making all the writings heretofore null and void. We hereby bequeath our most prized possessions, both real and personal, to be bestowed as follows:

Article I - To Wakelon, our beloved school, we bequeath our everlasting personal loyalty and devotion, promising that we will never forget her patience for enduring us for twelve years.

Article II - To our beloved parents, we give our sincere appreciation for making our graduation possible. We hereby promise them that we shall always try to live by the ideals they have helped us set and we shall strive to make their lives more pleasant.

Article III - To the faculty, we leave a sense of accomplishment and our deepest and sincerest appreciation for their patience and guidance throughout the past twelve years.

Article IV - To the Freshmen, we leave our intelligence and dignity to aid them throughout their remaining high school days.

Article V - To the Sophomores, we leave the honor and privilege of entertaining the Seniors of 1958.

Article VI - To the Juniors, we bequeath our most honorable position as Seniors. We leave them the thrill of being looked upon as upperclassmen and all the privileges that we have enjoyed.

Article VII - The Seniors individually bequeath the following:

Charles Blackley leaves his curls to Donald Horton because we are afraid his expenses for Tonies are high.
Henry Bobbitt leaves his ability to crown homecoming queens to Kenneth Moore. Good luck, "Tiger!"
Derwood Brannan leaves his bus driver position to brother Barry. Derwood said that he wanted to keep that bus in the family.
Betsy Brantley leaves everything except Tony to sister, Patricia.
Diane Broughton leaves her ability to primp in class to Judy Overman.
Glen Brantley leaves his Presley sideburns to Wakelon's Elvis, Robert Pulley.
Barbara Bunn leaves her love for typing stencils for the school paper to Hilda Brannan. Maybe Frankie will help you!
Kay Chamblee leaves her honorable position as Mr. Hicks' private secretary to Julia Pace. Don't work too hard!!
James Cunningham and Charles Hocutt leave their mischievous ways to Jake Phillips and Wilson Stallings.
Carlton Debnam leaves his long legs to Bobby Alford. Now, Bobby, you can stay up with your classmates without having to run so fast.
Robert Draughon leaves his quiet mannerly ways to Gardner Temple.
Charles Driver leaves his bashful ways to Franklin Eddins. Did we say bashful?
Helen Fuller leaves her acting ability (Dr. Gooch) to Anne Hopkins.
Ed Gill leaves his ability to pass subjects to Tommy Kimball.
Jay Godwin leaves his ability to charm eighth grade girls to Johnny Bullock.
Betsy Goodwin leaves her bottles of peroxide to Loretta Cawthorne.
Peggie Greene leaves her position on the cheering squad to anyone who has good lungs and nerves!
Zelma Greene leaves all the fun she has had this year to Pat Murray. Here's hoping that Pat won't be too lonely without Robert next year.
Carolyn Hinton leaves her ponytail to Betsy Roundtree. Now, Betsy, you won't have to grow your own.
Jimmy Hodge leaves his way with the girls to Mickey Phillips.

Ola Honeycutt leaves - if Ned Mitchell does.
Judith Hood leaves her ability to straighten books and to keep silence in the library to Jean Gay.
Robert Jenkins leaves his basketball suit to Freddy Beck.
Jean Joyner leaves her straight hair to Hazel Brannan. Hazel, Jean also said that she had a few extra curlers for you.
Linwood Liles leaves his position on the annual staff to Vaughn Wade.
Charles Long leaves his typing rate to Benny Bunn.
Judith Manning leaves her friendly ways to Martha Driver.
Nancy Martin leaves her love for the Brannan boys to Pat Phillips.
Donna Mitchell leaves her phone number to anyone interested (boys only)!!
Daphine Morris leaves her height to Bonnie Brooks.
Charles Murphy leaves his knowledge of physics to Thurston Perry.
Frank Murray leaves his seat in Miss Boles' homeroom to Z. W. Chamblee. We hope Zeke will make it.
Kay Pate leaves her talking habit to Delorie Parker.
Maynard Pearce leaves his politeness to James Gainey.
Roger Pearce leaves his tall, dark, and handsome characteristics to Bruce Johnson.
Linda Penny leaves her silly giggles to Ann Bobbitt.
Linwood Perry leaves his ability to date eighth grade girls to Sidney Richardson.
Connie Pierce leaves her ability to sell ads and to buy apple cider to some unknown Junior on next year's business staff.
E. B. Pulley leaves his pesty ways to the entire Junior Class. It will take the entire class to compete with E. B.
Johnny Richardson leaves his dancing ability to Thomas Strickland.
Peggy Richardson leaves her position on the basketball team to some future player. Also, she offers to give her a pair of used knee guards.
Jean Riggan leaves her dignified ways to Faye Temple.
Chris Shearin leaves her sublime silence to Jean Murray.
Marie Shearin leaves her ability to attract Corinth Holder boys to Ann Curtis.
Dorothy Smith leaves her cats, rats, other miscellaneous items, and her love for the lab to Jackie Mitchell. Watch out, lab!!!
Steve Stallings tells me that he has nothing he can do without so therefore he wills nothing; he begs - no hard feelings, please.
Hazel Tant leaves her "studying habits" to Judy Perry.
Joseph Temple leaves his driving techniques which won him the reputation as Wakelon's safest driver to W. G. Griswold.
Joe Wayne Tippett leaves his science fair honors to anyone who can achieve them.
Janet Upchurch leaves her boy-catching techniques to Edith Lewis.
Bobby Weathers leaves his ability to miss classes to do anything at any time to Leslie Strickland.
Donald Williams leaves his good looks to Larry Page. Girls, watch out for this lover boy!!
Tony Wilson leaves his horse laugh to Johnny Broughton.
As for myself, I will leave in order to make room for some Junior in the senior homerooms.

Our Chains Extended Into the Future

February 4, 1967

Dear Mrs. Privette,

Here it is ten years since our Senior year at Wakelon. Time really flies, doesn't it? I have kept in contact with our classmates and their activities during these years, and they have been many and varied. You remember the theme in our annual was a chain - I thought you might like to know just what things that our chain has formed in the lives of the Seniors of 1957.

Janet Upchurch made such a hit in the Senior play that she is now operating a finishing school for no less than "Southern Drawl."

Bobby Weathers, because of his long hours of practice, is now the chief projectionist in the city of Zebulon's one and only.

Kay Pate has really gone places since our high school days. She is now competing for the title of "Miss Dill Pickle of '67."

Betty Kimball is naturally a success in her nursing career (in more ways than one). We hear that she met a very handsome doctor on the way to surgery one day and she's been in stiches over him ever since.

Linwood Liles has really made good in Movieland. He took the place of our old Movie King - Rock Hudson. It seems the teenagers have really flipped over him.

Joseph Temple is living up to his nickname of "Tex" because he is now in the Lone Star State on his cattle ranch where he decided to settle down.

Carolyn Hinton was such an outstanding student at East Carolina that they just wouldn't let her go, so she is now on the faculty of her Alma Mater.

We were mighty proud to see the names of two of our classmates in the headlines the other day - none less than Charles Driver and Jay Godwin. After years of hard work they finally made the first trip to the moon and upon being asked what it was like all they would say was "Real Gone!"

Peggy Richardson now coaches her own basketball team at Speedy High School, Snail City, N.C. She says her playing experience at Wakelon helped her more than anything else.

Because of her friendly ways Judy Manning is now a touring guide at the United Nations Building in New York. When she can't understand the language a person speaks, she just flashes them that Ipana smile and keeps walking.

Charles Long has opened his own group of dime stores, naturally named "Whites." He says, "If we don't have it, it isn't to be bought anywhere!"

Connie Pierce is chief cosmetologist in New York's fabulous "La Belle Femme." Remember how her pocketbook used to look?

Little Donna Mitchell is still having troubles because of her height. She is forever placing want ads for someone to protect her while going through large crowds!

Diane Broughton has joined the WAC's and has recently been promoted to a 1st Lt. She says she followed the old proverb, which works pretty well with the Air Force - If you can't beat 'em join 'em!

Jean Riggan is now in the detective business and she seems to be very prosperous. We hear that she specializes in looking for lost men.

Daphine Morris now holds a position as head salesman at the Copper Kettle Candy Kitchen in Charlotte. There's nothing to selling the candy she says - only they don't give prizes.

Tony Wilson, Carlton Debnam, and Robert Jenkins have become well known basketball players in the last ten years. We read about them as the stars of the World Runners team - The Globe Trotters' stiffest competition.

Another athlete in our class has gone up the ladder - Henry Bobbitt. He is now with the Redskins. Turn on your TV sets and watch closely and you'll see him carrying the water pail among the players.

Judy Hood has taken a hand in the florist business. "Judy's Geraniums" are known internationally for the extraordinary colors which they have. (What's she up to now?)

Joe Wayne Tippett has finally succeeded as a veternarian. Heaven only knows the number of poor helpless animals who have unwillingly given their life to make him a success.

The Shearin sisters now have their own dress shop in New York - Chris is the head model and Marie does the buying direct from Paris.

Johnny Richardson, besides being a teacher, has other interests. He is the owner of "Herman's Butcher Shop;" It seems that he just couldn't resist the call of the butcher tools since the Senior Play.

Jean Joyner now dabbles in oil paints. Just the other day we read where she and Ex-President Eisenhower got together to compare notes on their paintings.

Frank Murray now has his own 50-acre farm. At present he is trying to develop a new kind of tobacco that requires no work between planting and selling.

Steven Stallings has become famous at the Metropolitian Opera House. He is now singing in "Happy Old Maid," a revision of "Merry Widow."

Hazel Tant has just had a promotion - she is now selling tickets at the exclusive Palace Theatre in New York. Roger Pearce is head usher there, too.

Linda Penny now has her degree - a MRS., of course. She says she is very happy in the vocation she decided to pursue.

Helen Fuller is now working behind the scenes with some of the shows on Broadway. She's afraid to go on stage since the mix-up her name, Dr. Gooch, caused in the Junior Play.

Maynard Pearce is now a typewriter repairman. He got his inspiration the day you so kindly took a group of students to Raleigh to see the new business machines.

Charles Murphy is now acting as Einstein II in this section of the country. It is believed that his ability is much like the famous man named above.

Charles Blackley and Linwood Perry are developing their own race track - only one rule - no slower than 95!

Glen Brantley decided to be a barber and he now has his own shop. So many people have requested those long sideburns that he's really been kept busy.

Barbara Bunn is now chief typist at the News and Observer in Raleigh. They heard of her good work on Bulldog Barks and naturally hired her.

Betsy Brantley's dreams came true - she is Minister of Music at a very large church. Occasionally she gives recitals and choir concerts on radio and television.

Derwood Brannan now holds a prosperous position with Carolina Trailways. No use letting all that bus training go to waste! His wife, the former Nancy Martin, sometimes rides along just to keep him company.

Kay Chamblee, who made such a good start in Mr. Hicks' office is now star of the TV program "Private Secretary."

Of course, Ed Gill is owner and operator of Gill Buick Company. By the way, they had the showroom extended because the 1967 Buicks were so-o-o long.

Betsy Goodwin, now Mrs. Billy Hugh Bunn, has recently published her first book entitled "The Value and Care of Your Diamond." She hopes it will reach the best seller list in '68.

Robert Draughon has become a famous dancer, bop of course, and right now he is making his first movie, "Don't Stop the Bop." Zebulon is anxiously awaiting the premiere in May.

Dorothy Smith is working on Formula PQZ. Even though it is secret information, it's leaking out that the use is to exterminate snoopy people who peek in the windows of her lab.

As we all expected Ned Mitchell and Ola Honeycutt are now Mr. and Mrs. and they're living very happily with their three little Mitchells in a new home near Zebulon.

E. B. Pulley now runs his own men's store. He really got his know-how back in his high school days. He has hired James Cunningham as head clerk.

Peggy Greene has become a famous dress designer - quite a change from physical ed. She designs for the Hollywood stars. She began on this road by scribbling on desk tops.

Jimmy Hodge is an up and rising lawyer and has just completed the greatly publicized case of "After Banquet Escapades." He seemed extremely well informed on the subject.

Don Williams has been captured by the Russians and they are trying to pry some very special secrets out of him. As ever, Don knows when to keep his mouth shut.

As for me, I finally decided to go into primary education and I am now teaching in a school very much like my old Alma Mater. Sometimes I wonder if I will lose my patience and finally end up in Womens' Prison.

So you see, Mrs. Privette, those hours you spent with us were not all wasted, even though I'm sure that you had your doubts at times. I hope that in this year 1967, you can still be proud of us - our ideals and achievements, for which you were largely responsible.

Sincerely yours,

Zelma Greene

Miss Gay was examining the class on moral law, and asked for a definition of "sins of omission."

Betsy G. was quick with the answer: "Sins we should have commited and didn't."

And then there's the one about the doorbell that married the electric razor and they had a humdinger.

Congratulations to the Seniors of '57

"Reserved for the one and only"

Hi Honey,

I am not the tall one but I do claim to be your one and only. I don't think this page will hold it all but some of it doesn't have to be in writing. It is a puzzle to figure out why you and I are still loving each other after all these years. Maybe we are like wire grass "we just keep coming back." I will never forget all the fun we had in the lower grades. Don't ever forget all the times we sat together in the show and all my parties. We really have the memories. Now for present things: I have really enjoyed sitting up at night listening to Byrd's Drive-In and hearing the many dedications you sent me. I would have sent them right back to you. Especially the one "I'll Never Stop Loving You." The one song you have played that I didn't like is "I'm Sorry". I forgive you a thousand times because I know you have me so. Now I am playing the song back to you. "I'm Sorry" for the childish thing I did. Please forgive me. I love you so much. I am really looking forward to the J & S Banquet. My answer is yes.

I Love You

Your Little Darling
Patricia "P.V."

W. G.,

I guess no two boys could ever have any better times together than we have, all through school. I don't believe I could find a better friend anywhere. Maybe if we try hard enough one of these days we will graduate together. (The chances are kind of slim) I just hope we can go on being friends the rest of our lives as we are now.

Your Pal
Mickey

W. G.,

Now that we are leaving it looks like you & the other might be seniors next year. I certainly hope so. I think you are a pretty good old joker. I hope you study hard & finish next year.

Good Luck Always,
"Charles Driver"

W. G.

I really think a lot of you, of course you know that. I think Patricia made a wise chose. I have really enjoyed having you in my class for the past 11 years, although sometimes you gave me an ear washing, but I forgive you for it. You are sorry aren't you? Well, now I'm tired of writing so I'll just say I think you're the Mostest!

Love
Loretta

To the biggest in Wakelon school I will leave you my ice bag and hope you will have few headaches. The best of luck always and I have enjoyed playing football with you.

"Bro"

W. G. Well it looks like I will be moving on out of school and town for awhile. Please don't let this break our friendship. Over the years you have been my best friend. There is no better friend one could have than you. Please remember all the good times we have had. I will never forget them. The ballgames and the places we two have been would kill most people. I am looking forward to the rest of this school year & summer with you. Good Luck. You have my best wishes forever.
